

It is hard not to notice the goodness of God while growing food for those in need. Whether planting, weeding or harvesting, every moment in the garden is a grateful one filled with thanksgiving and praise. All the glory to God in the highest!

